"MINERALS OF COLORADO" Status report.

Within two weeks all material will be in the hands of the Denver Museum of Natural History publications department. The next major step is the fund raising project. This will be a joint project of the DMNH and FMCC.

We are long overdue in saying thank you to all the people who have directly contributed data to the Colorado Minerals publication. This has been a combined effort of many through the years. The FMCC-DMNH steering committee, authors and FMCC Board of Directors wish to thank everyone for their contributions. The
